sup, I think I will like writing this book if you read please leave a comment even if its just saying hello I still will appreciate it. now enough with my blabbering and let's start the story.

ashfur: yeah start the story prick, I want to close to Scourge.

scourge: well I love being close and inside of you ashfur.

myself: hey stop let's keep the first few chapter PG ok (yes there will be cat lemons or smut or whatever you want to call it)

Bluestar: just get on with it my mouse is waiting.

myself: sorry about the terrible role playing but it will happen almost every chapter sorry (PS I love this ship also I write might write another just tell me which ship, but remember I have not read all the books so it will take time I might have to do some heavy research.)

also if you don't know what they both look like I will put both links in http://warriors.wikia.com/wiki/Scourge

http://warriors.wikia.com/wiki/Ashfur_(TC)

background: this takes place after the battle with blood clan, also I'm going to change this book from the real series, squirrelflight is a warrior before they go on the journey and there will be 8 cats that go.

ASHFUR'S POV

'I feel like today is going to be a good one' ashfur thought as he stretched his legs sighing in content. "squirrelflight" ashfur yelled as he trotted towards her, for some reason she looks anxious. "do you want to hunt with me,"ashfur asked and she shakes her head seriously. " I need to talk to you ashfur, come with me." she says in a serious tone and he followed until she stopped behind the nursery. "what do you need to talk about," he asked tilting his head.

"ok ashfur I can't stay in this relationship anymore you're ripping me apart," she said guilt lining her voice. "but I love you why are you doing this to me." He whimpered as he feels the tears starting to rise. " you're holding me back ashfur you always warning me of something and telling me what to do" she growled every word cutting deeper into his heart and everything that made him himself.

"I hate you, w-was this whole relationship a game to you, do you like manipulating people, " he asked all his sadness turning to rage. "Ashfur I'm sorry but we can be friends, right"

"No, no we can't you have broken me when all I did was care for you" then he ran, he ran until his legs could not carry him anymore until he saw no trees.

Little did he know he had run deep into the forest and was in a new clans territory. "hello" he yelled as he ran through the tall grass. he didn't even hear the huge dog sneaking up on him. the dog lurched himself upon ashfur cutting deep wounds. he yelped in alarm and tried to defend himself but he was too tired from running." so this is it, this is how I go out" suddenly he felt the weight get pulled off of him.

he heard a whimper, then it was just silence. he moved to get up but the pain in his legs was too much for him. he looked around and saw a small black cat with one white paw, he was covered in blood and looked a little purple, about the size of an apprentice with abnormally long claws, with beautiful ice blue eyes. Wait, what, why do I think if him like that he is a tom.

The black cat was mystified by the beautiful grey tom, and he thought that was ok. (in our world it is but with cats it would probably a little harder for them to accept, but for Scourge, no one ever dared to comment and teach him these things.)

Ashfur wanted to ask the black cat his name but he was relieved when the other cat asked. "Ashfur," he said "well I'm Scourge," said the other cat "where are you from," the little black cat asked. "I'm from the forest, you look familiar."

"I am the leader of the ominous bloodclan the one fought the forest a few moons back," Scourge said. "b-but you're dead how are alive I saw you dead after we killed bone," ashfur said studdering. Scourge shuddered at the memory seeing his deputy getting ripped apart. He had valued bone very much, he loved every scar on his masculine body, he needed a replacement, and he thought he was looking right at him.

Scourge leaned down and licked one of ashfur's wounds. ashfur shivered at the feeling of Scourge's rough tongue on his back, he liked it, but he would never admit that or so he thought. "ok you're coming with me" he said without an ounce of emotion in his voice. "no, no I'm not, first I don't even know where you are going to take me. second I cant trust you," he put his head on the ground in sorrow. " I can't trust anyone, last time I did, I got hurt."

"huh, want to talk about it." scourge asked while sitting next to ashfur, his flank rubbing against ashfur's back. "yes would you mind," he said, ashfur surprised himself at how fast he responded, scourge just chuckled slightly. why was he so eager to trust scourge he just met him. "well there was this she-cat she was beautiful but she was unfaithful to me and she ended up leaving me for this other tom." he said as a teardrop fell, he didn't even notice he was crying.

"come I will introduce you to bloodclan," Scourge said. ashfur got up and the blood had stopped but his fur had been soaked with blood but he did not care.

time skip ----------

when they arrived he was welcomed by minty "minty get the clan ready for a clan meeting" Scourge said, walking right past her. then a huge black cat pinned ashfur against the ground sniffing and touching him all over including spots he should not be touching, Scourge noticed when ashfur whimpered. "leave him alone Crash, he is mine," Scourge said calmly.

"ahh come on Scourge let me have this forest scum, I will treat him well." Crash said. " I will tell you one more time to stop touching what's mine," crash shook his head. before he could say anything Scourge was already pinning him with unsheathed claws, one against Crash's throat. he pushed down a little, he was beyond pleased when a small trickle of blood oozed out of his throat. showing a sadistic smile he then slowly got off of him. when Crash got onto his paws Scourge slashed right above crash's paw and cut some of his Achilles tendon.

"ohhh, he will not be walking for a while," said minty she was kind of the medicine cat but no one called her that. Scourge walked away and beckoned ashfur with his tail and the grey tom trailed behind. one they were in Scourge's box he said "sorry about him I will take you to your clan soon," "umm why did you say I was yours" ashfur asked as his heart started to speed up. "because I like you and I want you to be my mate."

next chapter will be on Monday

a few days later

SCOURGE'S POV

"I-I uh fe-feel t-the s-same way but we c-cant be m-ma-" Ashfur choked, he was feeling like his heart was doing loopy loops. "Hey take your time I don't have anywhere to go" Scourge soothed. ashfur took a deep breath and tried to speak "we can't be mates, we are both males". "Yeah I'm fully aware of that, and if you think that would make me care any less for you then you're wrong." Scourge said calmly.

"oh ok well we have to go back to thunderclan," Ashfur said. "ok let's rest first" scourge said as ashfur curled around him and rested his head on top of scourge's own. To Scourge, Ashfur was not just a replacement he genuinely loves Ashfur for who he is and he always will. Ashfur did like him but he wanted to take this relationship slowly. As they slept they thought all about each other both in entirely different ways.

In a nonchalant mood, a cat strolled in and didn't regard Scourge's territory rule, and was about to tap him on the shoulder to wake him but then he saw Scourge's eyes fly open. Scourge lunged at the cat and landed on the cat and was about to kill him but was stopped when ashfur's tail landed on his back." uh master Scourge you have two visitors looking for an ashfur?" the uninvited cat breathed.

"good, I'm going to kill you for trespassing in my nest" Scourge said putting a huge claw to the trespasser's neck. "please don't" ashfur pleaded. "Sorry, I can't show them I'm capable of mercy they will take advantage." He then pushed his claw down and dragged it across the trespasser's neck. blood sprayed his face and back and he cracked a toothy grin, one that glimmered like the teeth around his collar.

He did feel bad about making ashfur sad, but he had to seize the urge to kill it was too strong to ignore that was just his life now, and he accepted that he just hoped ashfur would." come we must go see who the visitors are," Scourge said. he started walking to the entrance of the alley and he started to hear of some commotion about forest cats.

Then he saw tigerstar and he was about to lunge when he saw the cat cowering in fear and he knew tigerstar would never fright over some blood. He also realizes this is probably his son, the one that helped kill bone. Sudden anger passes over him and he wanted to gut that cat but decided to listen instead." what" he snarled, blood still evident on his tongue.

The orange cat answered this time "we are looking for ashfur and we found him so we will be on our way". "no i'm not going if scourge is not coming" ashfur said, "also nobody is going to take ashfur from me I'll leave bloodclan if I have too." Scourge said determined

"Ok we will see if Firestar will accept you, by the way, I'm brambleclaw and this is Squirrelflight come on I will lead you," brambleclaw said. Scourge turned around with sadness in his eyes " I leave brick in charge and if then if I ever come back then I'll fight my way back up to being the leader, also minty come with me you as well snake," and with that, he left and snake and minty followed.

Ashfur was very worried about scourge he was the Firestar's arch nemesis he is known for killing cats it's not rare for the leader to show remorse but for someone like Scourge its going to be rare, especially to this cat. This also happened to be the cat he loves. ashfur thought to himself.

When they arrived at the camp they were met with a chorus of hisses he even got attacked but he dodged easily and swung with a heavy sheathed paw and sent a white cat flying but it was in self-defense.

"SCOURGE" a furious yowl sounded and silenced the clearing. "Firestar" Scourge said coolly. "Firestar we found ashfur with Scourge. He and ashfur said they weren't leaving each other so Scourge came along he brought this other cat named minty she is his adoptive sister and she has kits, with the huge male his name is Snake," said brambleclaw

Well everyone can stay except scourge, he needs to talk to me first also we need to talk to the leaders about this. Firestar then went to the leader's den and started to question Scourge. "First why are you here and why did you leave your clan?" he questioned. "well I wanted to be with ashfur and I do anything for him." Scourge said unfazed by the hostile tone of the leader's voice. "why do you like him so much he is a male so you can't be mates so what do you like so much about him," Firestar said genuinely confused.

"The fact we are both males does not bother either of us and I love him for him regardless of his gender," said Scourge. "Will you be prepared to fight for this clan and hunt fresh kill," Firestar asked. "anything," he said determinedly. "fine you can stay until I find a reason to kick you out, that goes for your friends as well," Firestar said. "ok" then Scourge walked out but was met with glares galore.

"Firestar said I could stay as long as I didn't cause trouble, and I won't I promise, also I have to sleep outside the warrior's den because I'm pretty sure you guys don't the cat that murders for fun to sleep in your den.

Then he went to his den next to the tree and sat down in the nest and slowly drifted off to sleep.then he awoke to rustling and when he opened his eyes he found ashfur was next to him. he purred, he loved being able to feel ashfur was next to him but he was awake."I just had a weird dream.

chapter three~ the dream

SCOURGE'S POV

"what kind of dream" Scourge asked.

"One from starclan," he said.

"Starclan, the fucks a starclan."

"what is a fuck."

"I asked first."

"Well, starclan is the place all cats go after they die but only the good ones, the bad go to the dark forest. starclan sometimes they try to warn us of the future with these confusing prophecies." Ashfur explained.

"so it's like hell, but for good cats and prophecies, interesting. so fuck is a term we city cats use it can mean two things, it can mean to mate and it can also emphasize a point. so what was your dream about" Scourge asked?

"well, Brindleface told me that after the next gathering that six other cats would meet at four trees, until a total of eight cats has been achieved, and we have to save the forest," Ashfur said as he groomed himself." we should be grateful this prophecy is not that confusing." Ashfur said.

Scourge then walked over to Ashfur and started grooming him. over the few days Ashfur has been with Scourge he has gotten used to the affection Scourge shows sometimes when they are alone. He also knows Scourge would never hurt him on purpose. Even if it was an accident he would hate himself for it even if Ashfur said it was ok.

"wait I'm assuming four trees is a place but if your going to meet six cats then how will there be eight?" Scourge asked.

"Ohh I assumed you were coming with me also but it's ok if you don't want to," Ashfur said hopefully, in all truth he wanted Scourge to come with him he did not think he could make it without him but little did he know he was the one that kept Scourge stable.

"huh, I knew I was coming I thought I was going to be one of the six cats, also what is a gathering," Scourge asked. "Well, a gathering is when all the clan leader's meet and then they talk about whats going on in their clan's, they end when we either have nothing else to talk about or the moon get covered by clouds from starclan. We have one today actually" said Ashfur

"How many clans are there in the forest and why don't they become one again," Scourge asked, "you ask a lot of question don't you Scourge," Ashfur said chuckling. "Well, it's better for me to ask them now than ask them later when it's more important," Scourge said unfazed by Ashfur's teasing.

"There are four clans in the forest thunderclan, the one we are in,shadowclan,windclan, and riverclan," Ashfur answered patiently. "Ok that's my last question, I think," Scourge said still a little confused.

"Ashfur what are we, are we just friends, mates I just don't understand because Firestar said we could not be mates because we are both males, nobody really explained this to me," Scourge vented. Ashfur understood that what he just said was incredibly difficult for him to say and it showed how much the small black cat trusted him.

"Well typically two male cats don't get together and some cats don't except it but I say let's do whatever we want it's not them so they should not care, I also think we should become mates because no one should care it's up to you if we should be mates though," ashfur said.

"yes," Scourge said a little too quickly."Ok, let's keep it private for a while first because we still have to get accustomed to it ourselves," the grey tom said. Ashfur then was flipped over on his back, as Scourge then started his assault of licks all over Ashfur's underbelly including spots he should not be touching.

Scourge then leaned over to Ashfur's neck "Ashfur you are mine, if anyone tries to take you away from me I will kill them in the grimmest way. do you understand," Scourge growled confidently. "y-yes S-Scourge I understand" Ashfur stuttered, the feeling of Scourge's hot breath on his neck sending shivers down his spine. He felt safe in the dominant aura of the smaller black cat.

Leafpool then walked in on them and saw the little moment they were having. She didn't think to interrupt them would be a good idea so she simply decided to come back later but she was stopped by a fast black blur. She would not have been able to see it if it was not for the white on the bottom.

All of a sudden Scourge was standing over her, well under but it seemed like he was over her because of his dangerous aura. Leafpool was beyond scared when he took small steps forward. "Scourge act rationally we don't want any incidents especially on the medicine cat, don't worry Leafpool he won't hurt you he is seeing if you pose a threat to us," Ashfur said reassuringly. After Scourge decided that she was not a threat he asked her what did she want.

"you both have to go to the gathering and tell the other clans and leaders you're staying, for the time being," Leafpool said "Ok".

Then they curled up into a tight ball with Scourge in the middle and Ashfur curled around him. Ferncloud walked in to wake the boys but Scourge opened one ice blue eye and assessed her and within 5-15 seconds he closed it. inviting her in without saying a word." we are leaving to the gathering lets go."

chapter 4~stop the mouse dung

hey, guys, I've been gone for too long and I'm bored as shit so yeah I'm gonna update also I want to say if this book ever gets to 100 views I will do something really stupid and record it and put it on this book so yea tell me what do in the comments. ALSO, NO SELF HARM EVEN IF ITS THERE I WON'T DO IT SO PLEASE DONT TELL ME TO DO IT. (I only won't because of THE KIDS MAN I like a little pain I'm totally underexaggerating, you should see my Saturday nights. LOL.)

spottedleaf: stop telling people about your Saturday nights weirdo.

Scourge then jumped up and ran out into the clearing, forgetting all about ashfur. He ran around the camp so fast it was hard to see him, mainly because he blended into the shadows of the night. he then bolted up a tree to get a better look at the camp and whats beyond that, trying to identify this unusual scent.

"Scourge! Stop you'll hurt yourself" Ashfur yelled as Scourge jumped off the tree. Landing gracefully he took off in the direction of the smell.

When he arrived he found two kittypets one male cornering a small she-cat. One with brown furred male and the other was a female, golden striped with white paws. He thought he could have a little fun so he stalked forward slowly, his claw ready to rip through flesh with ease. obviously, they backed away and looked away for an escape route. Scourge then leaped forward only to collide with a large grey body, he recoiled with a swift claw to the flank.

When the body fell to the ground, he then realized he had hurt ashfur, he then forgot about everything else and started licking Ashfur's wound clean as gently as he could. the male kittypet thought he could take advantage of the situation, he ran forward and tried to swipe Scourge but hit Ashfur across his belly instead because Scourge dodged.

Scourge turned around with so much hatred in his eyes it made the female kittypet flinch. he ran toward the male kittypet. When getting into striking distance he lashed out at the kittypet's nose leaving a small cut but it was enough to get the male to jump forward. Though it was too late Scourge had his paws already on the ground and he sidestepped to the left and dodged. When the kittypet landed Scourge cut just above the paw and the cat fell unable to support himself.

Scourge then walked over to the laying kittypet and stuck all six front claws into his body, Scourge smiled as he screamed in pain. Scourge then drug them across his body slowly gutting him, poking his organs as they slipped out of his now lifeless body. He looked over to find the female kittypet licking Ashfur wounds he reminded himself to thank her later.

Scourge then padded over, "whats your name," he asked the small golden cat. "L-Lily" her voice visibly quaking with fear. He went over to the small cat and when he got close enough he realized it was a kit. Wait what would that adult cat do with this small kit, when he realized what it could be, he closed his eyes in disgust he wanted to confirm his thoughts. So he approached the now dead male cat, his eyes then landed on an exposed member. Scourge was terrible but he would never take advantage a helpless kit, let alone any cat, he was still a virgin.

He then remembered Ashfur was wounded and walked back over to him trying to get that image out of his head. "do you want to walk or do you want me to carry you," Scourge said trying to get the clear concern out of his voice.

"STOP NOW, DON'T DO ANY MORE DAMAGE," said a voice Scourge recognized as Firestar. He and 4 other cats burst out of the clearing. Scourge then backed up and growled the lowest, most threatening growl, it cut through the air. Even the great Firestar flinched and walked a few paws back. "Hey Scourge we have to get these guys to the camp and get them healed up and what are you doing with that kit," said Firestar

"See that dead body over there," he waited and gave everyone a chance to look "he was about to take advantage of this kit that's currently under me." Scourge said. "ok we will talk about this after the gathering, come," Firestar said.

brambleclaw came forward to take the kit but it just dodged his mouth and ran back underneath Scourge. "Ok I guess she is coming with us," brambleclaw said.

They then set off, with ashfur leaning on Scourge for support. The kit within Scourge's mouth as they caught up with the rest of the cat going to the gathering.

When they arrived Scourge sat the kit down as he got a series of stares some of confusion and others of disbelief. Firestar then hopped on top of the rock and said " yes that is Scourge the one we all battled moons ago but he says he wants to change his ways, and I quote 'I will do anything for Ashfur' and I've decided to give him a chance. He also brought his adoptive sister and her mate.

As soon as he stopped a cat lunged forward to intercept scourge and throw him into the river, he then turned around and jumped a fox-length in the air dodging the cat narrowly." If I get attacked again you can expect me to defend myself just letting you know," he said as he dug his long, sharp, claws into the ground. "He is right he needs to be able to explain himself before we hurt him," Blackstar said. The stupid cat attacked again, and before it could even lay a paw on the ground, Scourge ran under him and then he hopped up turning his body while in the air and landed a clean cut to the throat.

The cat then fell to the ground without a sound. "Continue" Scourge said like he didn't just take a life.

hey, so this chapter is going to have some smut in it but that chapter will be private because a kid might come across this and read and be scarred for life by reading cat porn essentially so I'm making it private. there will be another chapter after this but it's going to be private in order for you to see if you need to follow me (but you can unfollow after I really don't care because it's not about followers it's about making you guys or girls happy) the reason I'm making it private is because when you follow it's like signing a petition for your consent to see the rest of the chapter.

make sure you read that authors note its important.

The leaders looked at him in awe. How could a cat kill another one so easily? Without feeling any remorse. The answer, only a heartless one can.

"Do you really think we can allow that cat to live here when he doesn't even fell anything," said leapordstar. "That is the fox-hearted cat you want to live here," said Blackstar. "I was defending myself and I will do it again if I have to," Scourge said calmly, without an ounce of regret in his low tone.

"What! You can't judge him for defending himself, like all of you, he doesn't want to die, he even warned that cat he was going to defend himself," ashfur yelled louder than he intended to. The leader then looked at him, Scourge couldn't stop the feeling of protection he had towards Ashfur. He walked directly in front of Ashfur and right into the leaders' line of vision, the kit followed as well. Ashfur silently thanked him, he hated being the center of attention.

"I suppose that thunderclan cat is right, if someone attacked you would you defend yourself," Tallstar said.

The gathering was soon over and they had come to the same result as Firestar. When they finished Ashfur, Scourge and Lily hid in a bush until fourtrees emptied."Scourge after we meet them I want to talk to you," ashfur said. They then saw four cats looking around like they were looking for something or in this case someone, they went up to them.

"Are you kidding me, Scourge and his male mate," the dark grey cat shivered in disgust. "and a kit," he said.

"Make another comment like that again and I will kill you," Scourge said to the tom. "hey starclan chose us because we have to save the clans we can't fight, I'm stormfur, this is feathertail," he said as he looked over at a silver tabby."The one you were fighting with is crowpaw, and the pale tortoiseshell over there is tawnypelt, and you need no introduction we know who all of you are."

But just as he finished brambleclaw and squirrelflight jumped out of the bushes and ran straight toward the crowd of cats "well that makes eight," said tawnypelt. Then Scourge then thought about why they were running, his question was soon answered when a fox ran out of the bush. Excited by the chance to fight he rushed in not thinking, he wanted to drag this fight out as much as he could. "Scourge please do it quickly, the kit does not need the see this," Ashfur said reminding of what he could lose.

Scourge then decided he would end this as quickly as possible, the fox then lunged at Scourge he then realized at the angle the fox lunged he is going to have to take a hit to get the fox's neck. So that's exactly what he did he let the swipe him in the shoulder just so he could slither under it and sliced its throat.

"Starclan, Scourge are you ok," Ashfur said as he ran over to him. Scourge then pushed the fox body off of himself obviously annoyed. "Does anyone know where we are going or are we just here to have tea," Scourge said. Brambleclaw then responded, "u-uh so there is this place where the water drowns the sun and the water is very salty, I had a dream about drowning there, so I'm assuming there."

"well we will go there in 2 days and see if we get answers, brambleclaw can you take Lily back to camp, Ashfur and I need to talk," Scourge said. "Ok I'll take her but what is tea," brambleclaw asked. "It doesn't matter," Scourge said as he beckoned Ashfur with his tail.

Ashfur and Scourge walked away toward an old fox den and went inside. "so what do you want to talk ab-" Scourge was cut off by ashfur pinning him to the ground. He was about to protest, but ashfur licked him on the muzzle to shush him.

And just like that, their night became more and more passionate with each thrust and each moan. As Scourge finished up he laid on Ashfur's back and they soon fell asleep like that. When they woke they both knew they would never have a moment as special as the one they shared last night.

They then walked back to camp smelling of each other. Their tails intertwined as they then decided they would not let anyone get in the way of there affection for each other.

chapter 5~heartless (smut version)

NO MORE PG SHIT I've decided to make this a regular chapter i have no reason i just wanted too.

The leaders looked at him in awe. How could a cat kill another one so easily? Without feeling any remorse. The answer, only a heartless one can.

"Starclan, Scourge are you ok," Ashfur said as he ran over to him. Scourge then pushed the fox body off of himself obviously annoyed. "Does anyone know where we are going or are we just here to have tea," Scourge said. Brambleclaw then responded, "u-uh so there is this place where the water drowns the sun and the water is very salty, I had a dream about drowning there, so I'm assuming there."

"well we will go there in 2 days and see if we get answers, brambleclaw can you take Lily back to camp, Ashfur and I need to talk," Scourge said. "Ok I'll take her but what is tea," brambleclaw asked. "It doesn't matter," Scourge said as he beckoned Ashfur with his tail.

Ashfur and Scourge walked away toward an old fox den and went inside. "so what do you want to talk ab-" Scourge was cut off by ashfur pinning him to the ground. He was about to protest, but ashfur licked him on the muzzle to shush him. Scourge then looked up at him and saw the lust in his eyes. He then knew what ashfur was trying to do, so he pushed ashfur off and turned over moving his tail out of the way.

Ashfur didn't hesitate at all and mounted Scourge instantly, his penis sliding out of it protective sheath touching Scourge's leg. Scourge shivered in pleasure as he felt it moving toward his asshole. Ashfur then slid it in slowly because he didn't want to hurt Scourge, but there was no way it wasn't going to hurt him. Scourge gasped at the intrusion and clenched his teeth and dug his claws into the ground.

Scourge could not describe the sensation but it hurt and he liked it. Ashfur on the other side of the "stick" was enjoying himself pumping in and out of Scourge. Scourge then allowed his tongue to slide out of his mouth. The toms were a mess, saliva, and precum everywhere. Scourge was about to cum and he welcomed the feeling of bliss. Ashfur was nowhere near finished, and he sped up and his thrust.

Scourge then buckled his hips and fell to the ground he couldn't think straight (not that he wanted to XD just a little gay joke) the feeling taking over his senses, driving him into a sexual madness. Scourge knew he was going to be very rough when the roles switched. But Ashfur couldn't wait for his turn to be on the bottom Scourge made it look very tempting he the saw how aroused his mate looked with his tongue hanging and saliva dripping off of it.

Just then he felt a tingling in his groin and then the orgasm came. and he deposited his seed deep into Scourge's body, marking him as his own. Now it was Ashfurs turn. Ashfur pulled out and his member dripped with cum. He then got down just like Scourge had. Scourge took a second to recover, but when he did he mounted scourge he unsheathed his penis then immediately stuck it inside of Ashfur's ass, to Ashfur Scourge was what you would call small but big where it counts and he wasn't talking about his heart.

Scourge then immediately thrusted in him as deep as he could. Ashfur screamed Scourge's spikes were so sharp. Scourge wondered if Ashfur would get pregnant, Ashfur secretly thought the same thing but he was too busy getting his ass ravaged by Scourge to focus. Ashfur kept screaming and Scourge kept going inside of him until greystripe said he heard screaming and walked in on you guys.

They then walked back to camp smelling of each other. Their tails intertwined as they then decided they would not let anyone get in the way of their affection for each other.

sorry for not updating

I'm not updating because I'm going out with my boyfriend sorry I know that's not a good reason but my relationship is one of the few things more important than this.

Chapter 6~awkward warning this chapter might trigger some people so if easily triggered rethink before you read.

DISCLAIMER: I have nothing against gay people (I'm gay myself) I'm really trying to immerse myself in this story and this is how I think they would react. also so smut in this chapter so it's edited for underaged readers.

Firestar's POV

Relief washed over Firestar as greystripe walked out of the bushes with Scourge and ashfur following him. If he was not distracted by a mating scent, he would have scolded himself for caring about greystripe so much more then any of the other cats, including sandstorm and spottedleaf. (does anyone have any idea where I'm going with this :)

He beckoned them all over with a flick of his tail. They all padded up to him and he could not stop himself from smelling all of them, mainly an excuse to sneak a look at greystripe's peni— nevermind.

"What is that scent, greystripe what did you see them doing when you arrived," he askes mystified by the scent mixing with greystripe's own. "They were uh m-mating," greystripe spit out, so loud that the whole clan could hear.

Ferncloud then ran up to ashfur and nuzzled into his head. "Oh ashfur I'm so proud of you, you have someone to love, whether that be male or female I don't care, as long as you are happy," she screamed.

Firestar also couldn't restrain his joy and looked at them with a proud look on his face. "come, we must talk," he said as he led them into his small den. He stopped in front of them "what did it feel like," he asked.

Scourge answered first "as if you were making dirt but it was hard and spiky, but after a while, it started to feel amazing, even more so if you love the one you're doing it with. Firestar hummed in response and left the cave leaving them alone.

He wondered what his old mate was doing right now, then he realized he did not care, but even so, he got his answer as sandstorm sent a playful glare in his direction. Walking over to him "whats wrong."

"Well, Scourge and Ashfur said something that interested me," Firestar said.

"Oh, about the male mating, let me guess, you want to try it with Greystripe," she pondered correctly. "Yes, it has been something that's been on my mind for a while pretty much the whole time we've been secret mates," he said wonderingly.

"Well go ask him if he wants to try it with you he will probably say yes because he truly loves you," she said. "Ok, thank you sandstorm tell longtail I said hi."

sorry for the really long wait and short chapter writer's block has been terrible but know I will resume my update schedule. also, Firestar isn't with sandstorm anymore and her mate is the blind longtail

chapter 7~firestripe

Firestar walked out into the clearing looking for greystripe to ask about male mating and if he would be interested in it. He saw him in the nursery and walked over to he was and saw he was helping ferncloud with her soon to be kits. though he could help it, he got a ping of jealousy just because greystripe was around another female.

he walked over to her to see what was happening. greystripe was helping ferncloud get around. he kinda felt bad when he interrupted, but what could he say he was needy. firestar called greystripe over and said, "so scourge told me about what happened." greystripe flushed he body heated to the highest point.

though he didn't want to admit it, he also had thought about mating with Firestar. Firestar felt his discomfort and nuzzled against his muzzle to attempt to calm him but it did just the opposite and made greystripe's lust shoot through the roof. greystripe not aware they are still in the camp pushed Firestar over ready to claim him right now.

firestar, on the other hand, was well aware where they were and tried to push the bigger tom off but to no avail. he then realized he was smaller and wiggle out of the other toms grasp. he ran as far as he could from the camp he then waited for his mate to arrive. he didn't have to wait long before greystripe emerged from the bushes. he waited there with a sad look on his face as if to ask why.

-hey guys Mr. Author here lol, should i continue this story? Obviously my writing skills have improved, and I kinda have nothing to do. This chapter has been written for a while i just never relesed it btw.

Also alydark9 's adorable comments are one of the main reasons I'm updating, just letting you know i appreciate them. :)

"Why" greystripe asked. "I had to, I didn't know what they would do how the rest of the clan would react, would they even accept me?"firestar asked his anxiety getting the best of him. "Oh Firestar I've never though of it from your perspective I'm so sorry I didn't realise how difficult it would be for you" greystripe said as he was turning back to the camp but he was stopped by firestar.

"But you jus-" he was stopped as firestar licked him on his muzzle. Greystripe looked into his emerald green eyes and saw just how much the smaller orange cat loved him.

Firestar feeling obvious jealously they he couldn't cover up, asked "what about your other family, what about silverstream, what about feathertail, what about stormfur" firestar couldn't help the malice that laced his voice.

"I loved her firestar, I really did and I thought you had spottedleaf, but then she died, but then sandstorm arrived and I already had silverstream then the kits, I had so much going on," greystripe said. Firestar wanted to drop it just at that but he couldn't, he wanted greystripe all to himself he hated that. "What about your kits."

"Firestar their my kits how heartless would I be if I left their life even if they're in Riverclan I will still love them as I always have, firestar I can't pick and choose."

As firestar though about Greystripe's answer he thought about his own kits. Even though he didn't love sandstorm anymore, they both still adored their kits. They were even close as they shared their problems with each other. She was even having longtail's kits and even though they weren't his he would still give his life for them.

Firestar slowly walked over to greystripe and nuzzled him. He could practically feel the love the bigger grey tom had for him. Though Greystripe, with mating still in his mind pushed firestar over and wasted no time mounting him one he got back to his feet. Firestar started to bristle as he didn't know what to expect.

"Shhhhh" Greystripe whispered, as he tried to calm his new mate, "I'll be gentle, I promise," as his penis slid out of its protective sheath, and pressed against Firestar's back leg. Firestar practically heaving with anticipation and need, felt the large appendage against his leg. He bucked his hips and lowered himself to the ground as his mysterious instincts kicked in. Firestar looked back at Greystripe giving him the okay.

Greystripe felt himself grow harder as Firestar's member exposed itself, he then very slowly and gently inched himself into Firestar. Although he stopped when Firestar let out of small hiss of pain. After giving firestar some time to adjust to his size he finally pushed his entire length into Firestar.

Firestar let out a shakey breath, that was a mixture of a moan and and a hiss. "You can move now Greystripe im okay,"

"Your wish is my command" Greystripe said as he pulled himself back and forth slowly still scared of hurting Firestar, although he was almost about to lose control and let lose on his smaller counterpart.

"Fasterr Greystripe mhmm"

After Firestar's sweet little moan Greystripe lost control and started to put all his weight behind his strokes. He could see the cum dripping off of Firestar's cock from his previous orgasm, and he could feel himself getting close to his own climax.

"Ahhh Firestar its coming"

"Mmhmm keep goinggg pleaseee"

Greystripe didn't know how much longer he could hold himself off for. His question was soon answered when he released his seed deep inside of Firestar's body, and collapsed on top of him.

After a moment of them both resting firestar moves from under Greystripe and he falls into a still moist pool of Firestar's semen. Although he was to tired to move as soon as Firestar's smaller ginger body curled around his.

"That was amazing Greystripe."

"Do you want to try on me?"

"I don't really think so, I don't i would like it."

Secretly, although Greystripe would never admit it aloud, he didn't really see Firestar as the dominant type, but that was fine with him, maybe even preferred.

They ended up laying there until next morning, they awoken to see see a small black muzzle with a big fat grin on it.

"I believe you have a clan to attend to, Firestar," Scourge purred.
